To Whom It May Concern:

Here are the reasons why I would like to strongly recommend Eric Lyden as Event Host. Eric didn't just Host our event he collaborated with writers, took total control of the audience, worked with the delays needed due to web casting, avoided curve balls like award recipients not being in attendance and maintained a razor sharp wit that keep the audience laughing. Eric showed a level of professionalism and commitment that was helpful to everyone involved in the production. If you wish to see Eric in action go to www.newyorkfestivals.com
