To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to highly recommend Eric Lyden with the utmost assurance for any and all corporate comedy performances.

I first saw Eric perform in Comedy Live on Royal Caribbean's Oasis of the Seas. I was so impressed that I went to see his show for a second and third time. In fact he was better because he used new and fresh material in each performance.

I asked Eric if he'd be interested in performing for my company; KTI, at our Special Advanced Training Course in Trinidad in August of 2011. He did and he was fantastic! Not only did he deliver a superb and corporate style set list with clean and very clever material, but he also wrote specific material geared toward our company and our employees. KTI specializes in Fired Heater equipment for Refineries and Petrochemical markets. By understanding our business and product line, Eric was able to deliver amazing punch lines and great material throughout the show. We honestly never knew there was so much humor to be found in our field until we hired Eric. And considering the diversity in age and ethnic background of our worker, it was all the more remarkable to witness Eric's ability to adapt his show on the fly and keep the laughs rolling without missing a beat.

So without hesitation I emphatically recommend booking Eric for your next corporate event. You'll be glad you did. Just don't book him on July 9th because we want him back next year!

Sincerely,

Michiel Bridges
